

Pro Fit Hinged Knee

DCT-1012U

DCT-1012 The Trend Pro Fit Hinged Knee is a front closure wraparound orthosis that provides medial and lateral support for mild ligament instabilities. Sized and universal options are available for a precise fit and feel.

Custom Contoured Fit

Trend TX2 Moisture Wicking Neoprene provides support and compression while also being lightweight and breathable

PDAC Approved: L1810/L1812

W trend-med.com

P 800.441.2591

E info@trend-med.com

Highlights • Clinically tested to provide post-injury protection, compression, and support • Front closure wraparound • Rubber tabs allow easy re-adjustment and application • Easy to use controlled range of motion hinges; hinges are removable

Indications • Mild to moderate ACL, PCL, MCL, and LCL sprains and strains • Meniscal or patellar instabilities • Mild knee sprains and strains

Optimal Support

Clinically tested to provide post-injury protection, compression, and support

TREND MEDICAL